

St Michaels Sporting Club

General Rules

as amended by the Annual General Meeting on October 23rd 2020

St Michaels Sporting Club – General Rules

1. Name

The name of the Club shall be "St Michael's Sporting Club" which incorporates St Michael's Rowing Club (hereafter referred to as 'the Club').

2. Objectives

2.1 The primary objective of the club shall be the promotion of Rowing , and other sporting activities as agreed by the committee.

2.2 The subsidiary objective of the Club shall be to promote the physical, social, temperate, moral and educational wellbeing of its members.

3. Government

3.1 The Club shall be governed by a Committee which shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Hon. Secretary, Hon Treasurer, and a committee of six who shall hold office from the date of their election until the next Annual General Meeting of the club. The President shall act as Chairman of the Committee and the Vice President shall act as Vice Chairman of the Committee. The Committee shall meet no fewer than ten (10) times per annum. Five (5) of those entitled to attend and vote shall form a quorum. All the business of the Club shall be transacted by the Committee. Voting shall be by the majority of those present and the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

3.2 Minutes shall be taken of the proceedings of the Committee and at each meeting minutes of the previous meeting shall be read, adopted and entered in the minute book.

3.3 Honorary Secretary & Honorary Treasurer. The Hon. Secretary shall prepare the minutes and agenda for Committee meetings and maintain correspondence on behalf of the Committee. The Hon. Treasurer shall keep the accounts in a fit and proper manner.

3.4 The Committee shall have the power to decide and arrange all day to day operational matters relating to the control and government of the Club. The members of the Committee must act in the best interest of the club and in an open and transparent manner at all times and abide by any decisions made by the Committee or a General Meeting. On occasion, a Committee member may find themselves in a conflict of interest situation on a matter before the Committee. On such occasions, the Committee member must make this conflict of interest clear to the Committee as soon as possible and offer to opt out of any further discussion on the matter. The Committee at its discretion may decide that the conflict does not require the member to opt out of the discussion.

3.5 Any other member of the club acting on behalf of the Club or on behalf of the Committee shall abide by rule 3.4

3.6 From time to time the Committee shall make decisions by means other than a meeting provided that all the members of the Committee are afforded a similar opportunity to take part in the discussion and vote, to that which they would have at a meeting.

4. Membership.

4.1 The membership shall consist of Full, Junior, and Outlying members who have been elected to membership by the Committee and who have paid the annual subscription set by the committee and any levies applicable to their category. The election of all members must be ratified by the Committee.

4.2 Full Members must be over eighteen (18) years of age who have paid their annual subscription and any levies applicable to their category. All Full members shall have equal eligibility for the purposes of proposing, voting and holding any committee position. For the purpose of setting fees or annual subscriptions Full Members may be categorised as Full Ordinary, Full Life, Full Honorary Life, or Full Student.

4.3 Full Honorary Life Members. Full Honorary Life Membership may be bestowed on a member who has given outstanding service to the Club or to a person who has rendered exceptional service to society, in either a public or private capacity. Such membership must be unanimously recommended by the Committee and approved by the members at a General Meeting of the Club. Full Honorary Life Members will be exempted from the annual membership subscription.

4.4 The President of the Club and the Captain of the Rowing Club are exempted from the annual membership subscription whilst in office.

4.5 Full Life Members. The Committee may grant Full Life membership to a person on payment of a fee decided by the Committee. This fee may not be less than six (6) times the annual subscription (excluding levies and Rowing Club registration) paid by Full Ordinary members. They will be exempted from the annual membership subscription.

4.6 Full Student Members. A Full Student member is one who has attained the age of eighteen (18) years of age and is in full time attendance at an institute of learning, or serving an appropriate trade or professional apprenticeship. A Student's membership will cease on the 31st December following graduation or qualification from his/her institute of learning or on completion of his/her apprenticeship.

4.7 Junior Members. Members who are under eighteen (18) years of age are classified as Junior Members. They may retain the status of Junior Member up to the 31st December of the year they reach eighteen (18) years of age.

4.8 Outlying Members. An Outlying member must be resident more than eighty (80) kilometres from Limerick and shall neither have business offices nor be employed within the city or suburbs of Limerick. Outlying members may use the facilities and equipment of the Club for training purposes as decided by the Captain of the Rowing Club.

5. Subscriptions.

The Committee shall have the power to adjust the subscription rate as it sees fit. Subscriptions fall due on 1st September each year. Any member who has failed to pay the annual subscription by the commencement of the Annual General Meeting shall be deemed to no longer be a member. He/she must re-apply for membership according to the rules governing membership. Only members with membership fully paid may represent the Club at any level of competition.

6. Members' Conduct.

6.1 The Committee shall have the right to establish a 'Discipline Committee' to enquire into the actions or conduct of any member who acts contrary to the Rules, Policies or bye-laws of the Club, or whose conduct or actions are in the opinion of the Committee capable of being detrimental to, or likely to be detrimental to, the interests of the Club or endangers the welfare and good order of the Club, its members or property. Any one or more of aforementioned matters are herein termed 'a breach of discipline'.

6.2 All complaints relating to alleged breaches of discipline shall be made in writing to the Honorary Secretary in reasonable proximity to the date of the matter giving rise to the complaint. The Captain or any other Officer of the club may suspend any member who is the subject of a complaint from all privileges of the club pending the outcome of a Disciplinary hearing.

6.3 On being advised of a complaint of an alleged breach of discipline and being of the opinion that the matter is of a sufficiently serious nature, the Committee, acting with all reasonable haste, shall appoint the Discipline Committee, comprising five (5) persons, being Full Members, to deal with and adjudicate upon the complaint. A written notice of a date, time and place of the meeting of the Discipline Committee at which such matters are to be considered and the nature of the complaint(s) shall be given to the member concerned at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting. The member shall also be entitled to receive copies of any relevant written documentation relating to the complaint(s).

6.4 The member shall be entitled to appear and/or be represented at such meeting and shall be afforded the opportunity to respond to the allegation(s) and to make submissions. The Discipline Committee shall be entitled to have advisors in attendance at any meeting and take advice. The Discipline Committee shall make rules for the hearing of any investigations, but applying the principles of natural justice.

6.5 The quorum for the Discipline Committee shall be three (3). Voting shall be by secret ballot, and the elected chairperson shall not have a casting vote. A majority of those present and voting shall be required to find a member in breach of discipline. The Discipline Committee shall have power to caution, sanction, discipline or fine such member in such manner as it considers appropriate, or to suspend the member's membership for such period as it considers appropriate, or to expel the member from membership of the Club or of any committee thereof.

6.6 During a period of suspension, a member shall be denied all rights and privileges of membership and shall not be entitled to enter on to Club property. The member shall not be entitled to a refund of any part of the annual subscription or levy and any subscription or levy falling due within the period of suspension shall remain due and payable.

6.7 A member desiring to appeal against the decision of the Discipline Committee may, within fourteen (14) days of the decision, request the Committee in writing to convene a Special Committee to consider the appeal, which may be against the finding of the Discipline Committee and/or against the sanction imposed. In the event of the appeal being lodged, the Committee shall, as soon as is reasonably convenient, convene a meeting to consider the appeal. A majority of two-thirds of those present and voting at the Meeting shall be required to confirm or amend the decision. The member shall be entitled to appear and/or be represented at the meeting, and address the meeting, prior to any vote being taken. Any Committee member who was a member of the Discipline Committee making the original decision may not be present at or vote in the appeal.

6.8 In the event that a finding by the Discipline Committee of a breach of discipline is upheld, or in the event of the appeal is against the severity of sanction only, the Committee shall, inter alia, have power to reduce or increase the sanction. A majority of two-thirds of those present and voting at the Meeting shall be required to reduce or increase the sanction as the case may be.

6.9 Pending the holding of such a meeting, the sanction imposed by the Discipline Committee shall not take effect.

7. Election of Committee

7.1 The President, Vice President, Hon. Secretary, Hon Treasurer and six members of the Committee shall be elected by ballot at the Annual General Meeting. Election to these positions will be confined to Full members.

7.2 Where the number of candidates is equal to the number of vacancies, the Chairman shall declare such candidate or candidates elected.

7.3 Where there are two candidates for one vacancy, voting shall be by secret ballot and the candidate receiving the majority of votes of those present, qualified to vote and voting shall be declared elected.

7.4 Where there are three or more candidates for one vacancy, voting shall be by secret ballot and the candidate receiving the majority of votes of those present, entitled to vote and voting shall be declared elected. Should no candidate receive such majority, the candidate receiving the least number of votes shall be eliminated and a further ballot or ballots taken under the same conditions until only two candidates remain and a final vote shall then be taken in compliance with Rule 7.3

7.5 In all other cases where there are a greater number of candidates for election than there are vacancies to be filled, voting shall be by secret ballot and candidates receiving the greater number of votes to fill such vacancies shall be declared elected.

7.6 A simple majority shall, in all cases, decide unless otherwise prescribed.

7.7 In the event of a tie, either for election or elimination, the matter shall be decided by lot.

7.8 The elected to be the six candidates with the highest number of votes, and in the absence of nominations, the Committee shall have power to fill the vacancies on the Committee.

7.9 The office of President may not be held by the same person for more than three consecutive years, and such person having held the office for three consecutive years shall not be entitled to hold said office again until a further four years have elapsed.

7.10 Nominations for all committee positions must be received by the Hon Secretary not less than two weeks prior to the Annual General Meeting. In the absence of nominations the Chairman may elect to take nominations from the floor. At least ten (10) days' notice of nominees for committee positions must be communicated to those members who are entitled to vote at General Meetings. The immediate Past President shall automatically be an ex-officio member of the Committee for a period of one year after relinquishing office.

7.11 From the date of his/her election the Captain of the Rowing Club shall be entitled to attend and participate fully at meetings of the Committee as though he/she was a member of same but without voting power. He/she shall be entitled to seek election to the Committee at the Annual General Meeting of same.

19. Winding-up

If in the event of the winding-up of the Club there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Club. Instead, such property shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having main objectives similar to the main objectives of the Club or for charity.

The institution or institutions to which the property is to be given or transferred shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the club under or by virtue of clause 20 hereof. Members of the club shall select the relevant institution or institutions at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provisions, then the property shall be given or transferred to some charitable object.

20. Income and Property

20.1 The income and property of the Club shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main objectives(s) as set forth in these General Rules. No portion of the Club's income and property shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the members of the Club.

20.2 No Officer shall be appointed to any office of the Club paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Club. However, nothing shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Club of:

- a. Reasonable and proper remuneration to any member of the Club (not being an Officer) for any services rendered to the Club;
- b. Interest at a rate not exceeding 5% per annum on money lent by Officers or other members of the Club to the Club;
- c. Reasonable and proper rent for premises demised and let by any member of the Club (including any Officer) to the club;
- d. Reasonable and proper out-of-pocket expenses incurred by any Officer in connection with their attendance to any matter affecting the Club;
- e. Fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to any Company of which an Officer may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the issued capital of such Company.

21. Keeping of Accounts.

Annual audited accounts shall be kept and made available to the Revenue Commissioners on request.

22. Personal Property.

Any personal belongings of members or visitors to the Club brought to or left on the Club's property shall be at the sole risk of the owners and neither the Club nor the Committee shall be responsible for any loss or damage to such property.

23. Additions, alterations or amendments.

A copy of the club's General Rules shall be made available to the Revenue Commissioners on request. Any changes to its main objects, its Income and Property Clause, Winding-up clause or its clause on the keeping of accounts as contained in said General Rules, shall not be made unless they have been previously submitted to and approved in writing by the Revenue Commissioners.

24. Health, Safety & Child Protection

24.1 The Club is fully committed to safeguarding the wellbeing of its members. Every individual in the Club should at all times show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of all. They should conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the Club.

24.2 The Club agrees to uphold the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport in Ireland. (The SMSC Policy Document can be found on our website smrc.ie)

24.3 The Committee shall appoint a Club Children's Officer (C.C.O.), a Designated Liaison Person (D.L.P.) and a Safety Officer at its first meeting after the AGM. These appointments to be for a period of 12 months.
